

I've enjoyed XM radio for more than 2 years. It is a wonderful, innovative service. It deserves to be left alone to find and nurture its own market. Technical innovation must be encouraged- not stifled at the hands of the FCC and other political forces. Let the market place decide. Leave XM alone.